Information collection and use

Booking details

Everyone who comes on an event at Adhithana is required to fill in a booking form. We require this information in order to contact you and to manage the event. Your information is regarded as confidential and is only shared with members of the team as necessary. We store your booking details securely on our online bookings system for up to three years after the event.

Email database

Adhithana holds a simple database, which we use to send infrequent emails, for example to let you know about upcoming events, fundraising for particular projects, or volunteer or job opportunities. However, we will only do so if you have given us your consent. We keep your contact information until you inform us that you no longer wish us to do so. You can unsubscribe at any time by contacting us.

Email communication management system

We use MailChimp as our email communication/marketing automation platform. By continuing to remain on our membership database, you acknowledge that the information you provide will be transferred to MailChimp for processing in accordance with their Privacy Policy and Terms.

How we use your information

We will only use your information where we have a legal basis to do so and will always respect your rights. Where we use your information, it may be because you have consented to us doing so or because we consider we have a legitimate interest to do so, in order to pursue our charitable purpose.

Examples of data use:

- To respond to or fulfil any requests, complaints or queries you make to us. We will use the information you give to us to handle your enquiry or request. This may include responding to your query or feedback, or sending you relevant information. We may also keep a record of conversations we have with you and feedback you provide. This can help us to handle queries more efficiently.
- To provide you with information and support for any events, fundraising activities or volunteering opportunities you sign up to. If you book or enquire about an event or activity we will consider this as a request to send you details about the event, activity or opportunity.
- To send you publicity communications by email where you have consented.
- To manage your contact preferences.
